You have a WHAT!

OK I'm going to give it to you strait. I'm going to through you right into a story, but I am going to give you some info about the OC's and by the way this does contain spoilers for the rebooted series and I have only seen the last of episode 34 so it mite seem confusing for those that have seen it and those that have. And to those that have seen the last episode I didn't like the ending so I changed it.

>Midnight's P.O.V.

I was walking down the street with my sisters Fern and Nickel when I see my brother being held by these golden wires. The wires seemed to be under the control of this huge ugly spider. I hate spiders!

"We have to save my brother!" I shouted to the girls. "Your right Mid, but we also need to get to those two girls on the roof of that building." Nickel said pointing to the last two ninjas that we have to find.

"Fern, Nickel you two get the girls I'll take the sp-spider." I said as they took off.

I started to focus all my power on taking control of the wires, ones I did that lowered my brother and the other guy that were in the grasp of the wires down to the ground, as Fern, and Nickel came running up with the other two girls. I then focused my power on the golden talons of the spider (where the golden weapons were) which made them separate from the spider and floated down to the girls. I let go of my power as the girls caught the weapons. Nickel caught the sword Fern got the Scythe, the black haired girl got the nunchucks, and the silver haired girl got the shurikens. As they caught the weapons they started to glow the color of their element as they changed into their ninja gi's. A small golden speck of dust came flying at me and hit my dog tags (Which were under my shirt the dust speck went through my shirt) and I started to glow as well.

When we stopped I noticed that the other girls had bracelets that had a picture of the element that their weapon in their hand represented (Fern-earth Nickel-fire Nya-lightning PIXAL-ice).

"Alright girls! Aim for the big ugly thing!" I shouted and shot at the spider. "On it!" Fern and Nickel said at the same time, the other two just nodded their heads and they all shot at the thing.

>After about a half hour of shooting at the spider and trying not to get shot. We had destroyed the ugly thing. "Yeah! Woooo hooo! Yes!" The girls cheered.

"Midnight?" I heard a male voice that I'm all too familiar with. "Cole!" I shouted and hugged my big brother.

>Cole's P.O.V.

After the fight with those strange girls and Nya and PIXAL. I got a good look at the girl in dark purple and noticed that she looked like a 16 year old version of my long loss kid sister. I started to walk to her "Midnight?" I asked. She turned and broke into a huge smile "Cole!" She shouted and pulled me into a bone crushing hug.

'Yup. This is my little Midnight.' I thought and hugged her back with just as much strength.

"Who is this?" Jay asked with a insulted and smug voice.

I turned and put my arm around Midnight's shoulders, "This is my kid sister Midnight." I said as she waved to everyone.

>Well that's all I got for today hope you like it. Let me know if I should keep doing this story
